What Is Staging?

- Creating an inviting first impression
- De-personalized and clutter free
- Home staging helps buyers mentality "move in" and feel at home

Why stage your home?

- Staging sends a message to buyers, agents and appraisers that this is a well-maintained home
- Few buyers can visualize needed repairs and changes
- Staging showcases your home at its best and highlights your home's best features
- Buyers' first impression is formed in the first 30 seconds

"The way you live in a home is different from the way you sell your home".
